PUBLIC GUARDIAN was appointed Conservator of the Person and Estate of Elva Garza on 5-14-08.

Petitioner states his daughter (33) is developmentally disabled, is a CVRC client, and resides in an assisted living facility. He was actively involved in the proceedings for conservatorship, and at the conclusion of the proceedings on 5-2-08, the Court encouraged visits.

Until December 2011, Petitioner was receiving supervised visits with his daughter. On 12-5-11, however, he received his last visit and no family has been able to visit since.

Petitioner has called the Public Guardian's office multiple times and has been told that his daughter cannot decide if she wants to visit and therefore they are not setting up visits at this time.

Petitioner does admit that his daughter has a history of one day saying one thing and the next day saying something else. She probably has said on occasion that she does not want to visit; however, she suffers from mental disabilities that should be taken into account.

There have been no incidents during visitation that would cause the Public Guardian concern or to cease visitation.

Ms. Garza's family wants to be able to visit, especially Petitioner, and it has become apparent that this will not occur without additional assistance from the Court.

Petitioner requests this Court order that:

1. Petitioner receive reasonable visitation with the Conservatee; and
2. Any other orders the Court deems necessary.

Atty Rindlisbacher, Curtis D.

Atty Bagdasarian, Gary G.

Page 2

Petitioner prays for an Order:

1. Compelling Carla D. Ray to account fully for all trust property and report all actions taken;
2. Removing Carla D. Ray as trustee;
3. Appointing James Douglas Davis as sole trustee;
4. Instructing the trustee that Carla D. Ray owes the trust the amount of $2,693.37 for the Dell computer account and that said amount shall be charged against and paid by her share of the trust proceeds;
5. Instructing the trustee to distribute all known assets of the trust to the named beneficiaries according to the terms of the trust and bring the trust to conclusion;
6. For costs herein; and
7. For such other orders as the court may deem proper.

Response filed 5-29-12 by Carla Ray states:

Respondent did not receive a written request from Petitioner or an attorney or anyone else requesting an accounting of any sort. It is noteworthy that Petitioner did not attach such request as an exhibit along with his other exhibits do to the simple fact that one does not exist. Section 16062(a) provides that a trustee generally has a duty to account at least annually to a beneficiary. Decedent died on 6-13-11, less than one year ago. Based on the above, Petitioner is premature in his petition to remove Respondent as co-trustee for failure to account. Respondent would have provided an accounting in the ordinary course – with the help of Petitioner as co-trustee – after 6-13-12, but has instead provided the attached accounting – without his help – for the period 6-13-11 through 5-25-12.

Second, before a distribution can be accomplished, the final bills of the decedent must be satisfied. Attached are invoices for unpaid bills. In addition, the trustee has incurred the expense of $250.00 to Ed Huff, CPA, for tax preparation and $2,740 to David M. Camenson, Professional Corporation, for legal services after the decedent's death. Also, a court filing fee of $395.00 for this response was incurred after the date of the accounting. Petitioner has demanded that he is owed half of the $38,883.82 death benefit from State Farm before satisfying these debts of the estate. This request should be denied.

Third, before final distribution can occur, an account of interim distributions must be prepared so that the final distribution can be equal as required by the trust. Based on the values of the accounting, Petitioner has already received 2/3 of the value of the trust estate ($96,000) while Respondent has received only $45,020.

Fourth, contrary to the allegation by Petitioner, Respondent has provided as much information at her disposal to address any inquiries from Petitioner at all times. At times, the information was not available. This can hardly be considered to be failing to cooperate.

Fifth, Petitioner is well aware of the fact that Respondent was not responsible for any charges made to a Dell credit card. The decedent opened a credit card without Respondent's knowledge for use by Misty Blackmon, the decedent's granddaughter, and the balance was paid in full on 5-14-12 by Misty Blackmon from her own money, not from any trust estate monies.

Respondent prays for an Order:

1. Denying and dismissing the petition, Petitioner's request for an accounting and the removal of Respondent as Co-Trustee;
2. Instructing Petitioner as Co-Trustee to cooperate with Respondent to obtain updated appraisals on the jewelry in the possession of Petitioner so as to correctly value the assets already distributed to him;
3. Instructing the Trustees to pay all bills of the trust estate as set forth in Exhibit B to the extent required by the respective creditors;
4. Distribute the balance of the trust estate such that both Petitioner and Respondent receive a distribution of equal value;
5. For costs herein; and
6. For such other orders as the court may deem proper.

SEE PAGE 3

Petitioner filed Reply to Response on 6-6-12 stating:

- A demand letter was received by Respondent on 1-17-12. A copy of the letter and certified mail receipt signed by Ms. Ray are attached.
- Petitioner objects to Respondent's accounting as it incorrectly charges Petitioner with $51,000 in personal property that he never received or was property owned by Petitioner. For example, Petitioner never received the jewelry alleged in the accounting and believes it is in Respondent's possession or was given to third parties.

[Examiner notes that the informal accounting contained in the Response is not before the Court at this time and was not reviewed by Examiner.]

- As to the administration itself, Petitioner and Respondent are co-trustees, but Respondent has denied Petitioner involvement and keeps information from him. Petitioner demands all records, bank statements, bills, etc.
- Petitioner requests Respondent be instructed to provide a proper account to the trust with all records and information and allow Petitioner to participate as co-trustee. If the above issues can be resolved

DOD: 5/16/2011	HOWARD GATLIN , Trustee of the Gatlin Family Trust dated 6/3/1998, is petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:  Note: Declaration of Petitioner states the first sentence of paragraph 4 of decedent's will devises the entire residue of her estate to the trustee of the Gatlin Family Trust, dated February 12, 1998. Petitioner states they did not execute a trust on 2/12/1998, nor did they execute any wills on that day or any other documents. The Will is in error. The only trust petitioner and his wife [decedent] ever executed is the trust know as the Gatlin Family Trust dated 6/3/1998.
